

Autumn,

Thank you for giving your time and expertise for the Cornerstone Spotlight presentation. I polled my students about the highlights of your presentation and the exploding balloon was #1. But they also understood that scientists are curious and willing to change their minds when new data is presented. You are a blessing to our students. We will miss you next year when you are in Montevideo.

Nancy Shankle