Instructor	Text Responses
Question: Strengths:
Drachenberg	Being able to relate class information to everyday items we come in contact with to teach us new ways to see and view things, hours of availability where very good, willing to meet with students and review information
Question: Weaknesses:
Drachenberg	No real weakness noted in the class, this is just a very challenging class with challenging information and relating the information to students can be difficult at times, but instructor adjusted accordingly to provide the best way to communicate the information.
Question: Additional Comments:
Drachenberg	Wish the university invest in more visual aides for classes with labs. Some of the items used during lab where old or did not work and would have to share groups due to lack of items needed for a good experiment.
