Course evaluations are a good tool you can use to adapt your course and teaching styles and methods to be as effective as possible in future classes. They're also an important element of your annual evaluations and tenure and promotion processes. We encourage you to save each report each semester for your reference.

Uploading the reports in your Scheduled Teaching listings in Activity Insight can be a good place to keep track of them.

If you have technical problems accessing a report, please contact Educational Technology at courseeval@acu.edu. If you would like help interpreting your results or looking for teaching techniques to respond to this feedback, please contact Cliff Barbarick, the director of faculty development in the Adams Center, at cab11c@acu.edu.

What did the instructor do that made the course effective? Be specific (for example: particular assignments, discussions, presentations, etc.).

Comments
He answered most questions with as much detail as possible to help with understanding the material.
Extensive help in class and willingness to extend office hours.
He provided many different avenues of learning the material and had us work example problems ourselves in class.
The best class I have taken, it was a very vary hard but the professor made sure that everyone was doing good and he was willing to help you if you asked. Although he demands a lot of work (3 quizzes and 3 homeworks per week), plus the tests, he will help you and it is his interest that you learn the material and comprehend it in order to use it in real life.
Gave intense information with very descriptive examples. Also, kept class involved with asking questions and letting us do problems.

What could the instructor do to improve the effectiveness of this course? Be specific.

Comments
Reform the way tests are handled.
Extra credit?
Nothing that I can think of.
Nothing, it was great
The only "complaint" within the class that can be made is nothing to do with Dr. Drachenberg but in just the timing of the class.

Do you have additional comments about your experience in this course?

Comments
Truly amazing teacher, truly has a passion for teaching, and includes a bible verse every day that relates both to the topic and to problems that may arise in life.
I really enjoyed this course, and I learned a lot.
It was the best class although it was probably the hardest I have taken.
