Course evaluations are a good tool you can use to adapt your course and teaching styles and methods to be as effective as possible in future classes. They're also an important element of your annual evaluations and tenure and promotion processes. We encourage you to save each report each semester for your reference.

Uploading the reports in your Scheduled Teaching listings in Activity Insight can be a good place to keep track of them.

If you have technical problems accessing a report, please contact Educational Technology at courseeval@acu.edu. If you would like help interpreting your results or looking for teaching techniques to respond to this feedback, please contact Cliff Barbarick, the director of faculty development in the Adams Center, at cab11c@acu.edu.

What did the instructor do that made the course effective? Be specific (for example: particular assignments, discussions, presentations, etc.).

Comments
The assignments are challenging, which I think helps us learn the material quite a bit. He also goes in depth with the mathematics which is really important and not everyone does. Additionally, he gives in depth feedback on assignments in a timeline manner, and I know from having graded a few times that it means many hours on his end, so I am grateful for that.

What could the instructor do to improve the effectiveness of this course? Be specific.

Comments
Maybe having some hands on demos in class?

Do you have additional comments about your experience in this course?

Comments

Great professor, he goes above and beyond, and really cares about his students. It is a famously challenging class, and I feel I learned a ton about it.
