Question: Strengths:

PHYS 4301: Entertaining, knowledgeable, passionate.

PHYS 4301: Always prepared with exceptional presentations that clearly explain the material. Practical examples were performed in class in which the material covered was used.

PHYS 4301: Very understanding with students. Has firm grasp of course material.

PHYS 4301: passionate and quirky. fun to be around and learn from

Question: Additional Comments:

PHYS 4301: I really liked the real world data analysis examples and doing experiments in class. The homework assignments were useful in applying the learned material.

PHYS 4301: After completion of this course, which has been one of my favorite courses taught at Lamar, I would not change anything about this course. What I might suggest is to allow a full week for the homework which was generally assigned on a Tuesday and due Thursday. I would suggest pushing that due date back to the following Tuesday.

PHYS 4301: Fantastic course.

PHYS 4301: great semester gonna miss your class
