

December 2010

Wishing you a Christmas filled with wonder and joy as you celebrate the birth of the

Lord
Dr. Elliott,

Thank you for teaching me this semester! I have enjoyed getting to know you. Thank you for challenging my beliefs and encouraging me to pursue Truth. The verse you put in the syllabus (Isaiah 1:18) is one of my new favorites. I love the fact that God is also a scholar - I have never thought of Him like that. Thank you for all of your help this semester.

Merry Christmas,

Emi Alin Johnson
