This after you tried to guilt us yesterday saying you were never going to be able to play with us again ;) it's been good to see you, even though I haven't been able to play this summer.

Hey team,

Man, I'm gonna miss you guys. I wish I could be here for longer! I don't know if this group has been together for longer than I've been around, but I do think it is incredible that I can always come back and play with the same people that I've been playing with since my freshman year in 2011 down in Bennett Gym (engineering will never do justice to its greatness). Never have I met a group so consistent, that I can show up after being away a full year on a given Tuesday at 4PM and there will be people playing. And no matter when, I always feel remembered, wanted, cherished, and welcomed. So thank you.

Thank you for the fellowship. Thank you for the concern when someone gets hurt, and the laughs when we walk it off. Thank you for the rage (with or without reason) that steams from your passion and competitiveness, and for the apologies. Thank you for the great skills all of you exhibit in the field, and the friendship you show outside of it. Thank you for educators who, for years, have considered themselves equal to students when they share the field, showing leadership in humility that is Christ-like. My summer has been great because of my Tuesdays and Thursdays with all of you, and so has the last 5 years.

This is NOT goodbye. I will come and play on Saturday if there's a game, and I will try my best to come out and play any time I'm in town. You guys are great!

Get up! Play on!
Daniel
