This professor was very fair or everyone and taught very well

The use of power points and quizzes helped me prepared for the test

Enthusiastic about subject, open minded, knowledgeable

Power point presentations and teamwork enthusiasm and love for what he teaches

The quizzes everyday seemed like a hassle, but helped my grade and helped keep you focused and ready for the exam. Good idea. much appreciated.

Have a syllabus with the entire semester mapped out

Dr. Cha presented the context behind the New Testament writings which greatly helped my understanding of the New Testament.

Dr. Cha was very engaging and enthusiastic which allowed me to be forced in class and want to learn more on the subject.

Went through the material in detail

He had us give our views on certain points presented in the readings, such as our opinions on what the point of one of the New Testament letters was. (one-point essays)

Testing at a level of a majors course, but giving extra points to balance it to that of a mon major's course.

He was prepared in presentations and explained what was needed to finish homework.

He gave a lot of examples and explain each book very well.

Always prepared. Taught well. Made class participation easier.

He was consistent in his routine , so it was easy to stay prepared

Taught well.

I liked that he gave us plenty of opportunity to extra credit.

Dr. Cha made sure to tell us a lot of background information for each book rather than just what can be read in the text.

Explained the course material by book, which helped

More class discussion and less lecture
Less "all of the above" with "A and B" answers on tests, it tends to confuse us even though we know it.
When going over the quizzes we could do less joking. Sometimes it makes it difficult to get the info.
