Missional Life helps you cultivate your life and work in God's Kingdom by strengthening your ability to:

understand your God-given identity and its influence on what you do form deep and meaningful relationships

pay attention to God's presence in your life, in the people around you, and in the world

actively engage in God's work around you manage your responsibilities and resources in a way that honors God

listen to others on their own terms and without judgment

protect and support the interests and needs of others

be confident that you can cultivate in other settings the kind of Godcentered relationships you will experience in Missional Life

MISSIONAL LIFE

PURPOSEFULLY PARTICIPATING IN WHAT GOD IS DOING

Have you ever wondered...

...if it's really possible to find out what God is up to?

...what it would look like to take the words of Jesus more seriously?

...what it means to be the church instead of just going to church?

If so, you're not alone, and Missional Life may be just right for you!

Missional Life seeks to spark the missional imaginations of a diverse group of students as they cultivate a lifestyle wrapped up in God's mission.

To do so, ML students join in cohorts led by experienced spiritual mentors to explore inward and outward expressions of Christian mission and community.

This apprenticeship brings world-class missional training within reach of every ACU student. If you are serious about following Jesus into the life and work of God while you are a student, I know of no better preparation.

~ Dr. Kent Smith (Halbert Institute for Missions)

I loved the one-on-one times inside of an intentional community that allowed for us to dig deep into people's lives and learn new things about how to have community in God. The one-on-one coaching is something that I really connected well with in the ML program. ~ Carolina White (Communications)

ML gave direction to my spiritual life through discipleship. The decision to join ML has truly been one of the best decisions I have made for my relationship with lesus.

~ Andres Saucedo (Bio-Chemistry)

Many communities claim to be missional and to be about living life together, but ML provided an environment where these things were actually attainable. This program taught me to think missionally in every aspect of my life, which has led to a fuller perspective and a greater love of God and community. ~ Daniel Marolf (Biblical Text)

I felt myself challenged to let Christ be part of the interaction I have with people everyday. The people everyday. The heart of the program is pure and the people are authentic. The things I learned served as my accountability to be interested in finding where God is at the served as at the work and joining Him there. ~Javan Furlow (English/Pre-Law)
