Report Comments

Course evaluations are a good tool you can use to adapt your course and teaching styles and methods to be as effective as possible in future classes. They're also an important element of your annual evaluations and tenure and promotion processes. We encourage you to save each report each semester for your reference.

Uploading the reports in your Scheduled Teaching listings in Activity Insight can be a good place to keep track of them.

If you have technical problems accessing a report, please contact Educational Technology at courseeval@acu.edu. If you would like help interpreting your results or looking for teaching techniques to respond to this feedback, please contact Cliff Barbarick, the director of faculty development in the Adams Center, at cab11c@acu.edu.

What did the instructor do that made the course effective? Be specific (for example: particular assignments, discussions, presentations, etc.).

Comments
This is hard material to grasp and Dr. Jessup gave opportunities to practice it. This helps solidify information and understanding as well as making the material applicable to real life.

What could the instructor do to improve the effectiveness of this course? Be specific.

Comments
Perhaps even more time given to practicing the different ML algorithms would make students more confident taking the tests. Furthermore, consider making the tests worth less of the total grade. Slightly more emphasis on the homework could incentive students to get more out of simple problems and prepare them better for the tests.

Do you have additional comments about your experience in this course?

Comments
Dr. Jessup rocks and teaches material that is important to developing critical thinking.
