

Review – 2018-2019 year

Sarah:

Thank you for meeting with me yesterday. It was good to discuss your work and your hopes for the future.

As we discussed, your performance across all areas is excellent. I appreciate the time and thought you are putting into your teaching, and how you have responded to student feedback and in-class experiences. I appreciated the chance to travel with you on two overseas class experiences, and your organization and planning on these was exemplary.

In terms of service you are overloaded right now with a major college assignment and a preacher search, both of which you are leading. Thankfully both of these will end soon. I also appreciate your efforts to connect with students outside the classroom; as you noted, that is where much of the mentoring happens.

Your research is outstanding, both in terms of quantity and quality. I hope your most recent resubmissions is successful. As we discussed, we can look at possible ways to structure your teaching so it is more conducive to research blocks of time.

We are thankful to have you with us ACU and look forward to many more years of work together.

Mark
