

Abilene Christian University
Department of Political Science

POLS 225 National Government
Student Learning Outcomes

Students will understand constitutional democracy and its unique role in the United States, along with the underlying foundational documents

Students will understand the United States political system and the institutions of government that create and implement public policy

Students will understand and be able to analyze the fundamental theories and philosophies of government and civil society

Students will understand American political culture and its impact on the country, including public opinion and political socialization

Students will understand American civil liberties and rights

Students will understand the basic issues and have knowledge of policies regarding the economy, environment, welfare, and defense