¹ Councils may request additional information about "Information" items. These items are approved as "Consent Agenda."

² The Dean and Department should respond to the Provost's recommendation to close a program in writing. Advise & Respond (R) requires that the voting body should receive the written responses at least one week prior to the vote.

³ All courses that meet University Requirements for general education must go through UGEC. Courses or degrees offered only to students seeking teacher certification must go through the Teacher Education Council. All undergraduate changes must go before the UUAC. All graduate degree plan changes must go through the Graduate Council.

⁴ A minimum of 30 hours is required for a major. A maximum is specified for each degree (e.g., BA, BS). The university minimum for elective hours is 6, unless the requirements of external accrediting bodies make it impossible.

⁵ Program or course changes that apply to any major that includes Teacher Certification will be reviewed by the college, the Teacher Education Council (TEC), and then the UUAC.

⁶ Courses that satisfy ACU's University Requirements (General Education) will normally have lower-level numbering, be free of prerequisites and co-requisites, appeal to more than one or two majors, and "not narrowly focus on those skills, techniques, and procedures specific to a particular occupation or profession" (SACS 2.7.3). Departments may request exceptions to the first three criteria.

⁷ The UUAC approved the clarification that "general requirements for graduation" means the enumerated items in the "General Requirements for Bachelor's Degrees" section of the catalog.

Memo

To: Academic Councils
Date: December 2, 2013
Re: Closing UNIV 100, UNIV 203, and CORE 220

In a recent review of courses in Banner, we discovered 3 courses that are open in Banner but not listed in the catalog. These courses are no longer part of our general education program and should be closed.

UNIV 100 University Seminar (2-0-1), fall, spring. A foundational course designed to enhance the opportunity for success of the first-year student. A framework for Christian learning is explored in an interactive small-group format in which the instructor also serves as the student's academic advisor and mentor. An experienced, upper-level student serves as a peer leader to assist with course activities. May be used to satisfy University Seminar Degree Core requirements.

UNIV 203 Communicative Attitudes (2-0-2), fall, spring. A programmed experience in the development of attitudes, self-confidence, and personal skills to achieve motivated effectiveness in academic, family, work, and social situations.

CORE 220 Community (3-0-3), fall, spring, summer. This course explores the foundations of human communities, from family structures to faith communities. Using a variety of disciplinary approaches, it examines influences on communities, such as culture, morality, politics, economics, gender, history, religion, institutions, and natural resources. Matters that manifest communities, including geography, war, technology, and the arts, are also explored. Required to satisfy University Requirements. Prerequisites: CORE 120.
