

Competency	Capstone Requirement	Component in ITC 480 that meets the requirement
Habits of mind that foster integrative thinking between the liberal arts core curriculum and their major field of study.	A comprehensive skills and accomplishments inventory reflecting the student's scholarship (research and creative activities), accomplishments, co-curricular activities, service, leadership, internships, integrative thinking, knowledge, etc.	(1) Weekly reflection papers on spiritual disciplines with specific focus on how to integrate them into the workplace. (2) Produce integrative portfolio with artifacts in academics, co-curricular, and spiritual areas.
Achievement and demonstration through advanced research and/or creative projects the ability to frame questions, carry out critical analysis, and produce work of substantial complexity and quality related to their chosen field of study.	An assignment that demonstrates the student's ability to think critically about faith and vocation as it is expressed in a particular discipline met by a course or experience in the students' degree plan or major	Analyze two case studies involving ethical dilemmas in the field and write a short research paper on each.
Reflect and demonstrate their ability to think critically, globally, and missionally about their discipline.	A required paper with a minimum length of 2000 words (approximately 7 pages) and worth a minimum of 10% of the assessment for the course in which it is included. This paper provides an opportunity for a summative assessment of the student's information literacy skills, including the proper citation of a minimum of 5 appropriate sources that support their research.	Final paper: a theology of work