State the requested change and reason. A memo may be attached if more space is necessary.

Add EDUC 476 Effective Strategies for English Language Learners to all degrees. See the attached for justification.

Note: in the ENGT English Teaching degree this will not be an addition. Instead, it will eliminate a menu and designate the EDUC 476 course. Currently, this degree offers the following menu: READ 480, SPED 477 or EDUC 476. The choice will be eliminated and all candidates will take EDUC 476.

Circle the number that corresponds to the requested change. Degree plan changes are on the second page.

‡ Program or course changes applying to any major that includes Teacher Certification will be reviewed by the college, the Teacher Education Council (TEC), and then the UUAC.

* All graduate degree plan changes must go through the Graduate Council.

 Courses that satisfy ACU's University Requirements (General Education) will normally have lower-level numbering, be free of prerequisites and corequisites, appeal to more than one or two majors, and "not narrowly focus on those skills, techniques, and procedures specific to a particular occupation or profession" (SACS 2.7.3). Departments may request exceptions to the first three criteria.

Note: The Board of Trustees is informed when a major or degree is added or discontinued.

The State of Texas has recently passed legislation outlining standards for and accountability processes in educator preparation. A specific area of focus in this legislation is the preparation of teachers to effectively meet the needs of English language learners (ELLs). The US Department of Education reported an increase in ELLs enrolled in Pre-K through 12 schools from 3.57% in 2000 to 8.45% in 2010. See the following demographic data on ELL enrollment in Texas provided by the Texas Education Agency:

- 817,165 ELL students in Texas
- 456,051 enrolled in bilingual education
- 310,812 enrolled in English as a Second Language

Source: PEIMS Data Spring 2010

- There are over 120 different home languages represented in Texas schools. 91% of ELL students speak Spanish.

Educator preparation programs are required to prepare teacher candidates to serve this population and the state has established the following accountability structures to evaluate programs in this area:

1. TExES certification exams have been revised to include the English Language Proficiency Standards -- the state standards for addressing the needs of ELLs.
2. All candidates for certification must complete an online survey with the Texas Education Agency as part of the certification process. In this survey, candidates evaluate their preparation program. There is a section of questions specifically addressing their preparedness in this area. Data from the most recent report indicate that this is an area of needed attention in our program.
3. At the end of the first year of teaching, principals evaluate a teacher's preparation through a state administered survey. Again, there is a specific section of questions addressing the beginning teacher's level of preparedness for serving ELLs.

In addition to accountability structures, we believe that preparing candidates to serve ELLs will enhance the program. This will make them more competitive as they move into the job market. They will be better prepared to meet the needs of the students in their classrooms. In addition, this preparation can open doors for teaching in international contexts so this is also consistent with the universities missional and global perspective.
