Course Number: COMM 136 or Degree Plan(s):

The Department of Communication and Sociology would like to change the number of credit hours for COMM 136 (Debate Workshop). Currently, this is a 1-hour course that is repeatable for six hours. This course was designed for students who are on the debate team to earn credit for their academic work associated with being on the team. However, students rarely register for the course because they don't need the credit in their degree plans or want to use those hours in other ways. We would like to change this course to be available with a variable credit option of 0-1 credit hours. All debaters will be required to register for COMM 136 -- either for zero credit hours or one credit hour. This will more accurately reflect faculty load and ensure participation in the course will be reflected on the students' transcript. See the catalog description markup at the end of this document.

Notes

² Any change to a cross-listed course requires the signature of both department chairs or program directors overseeing the course to ensure that the courses stay in sync. This includes courses taught at other campuses (e.g. BIBL 101 and BIBO 101).

³ For undergraduate majors, a minimum of 30 hours is required. These programs must have a minimum of 6 elective hours, unless the requirements of external accrediting bodies make it impossible. Master's programs must include a minimum of 30 hours, and doctoral programs must include a minimum of 30 hours beyond the master's.
