Re: Shared Course Approvals with Cross-Listing
Psychology
Date: September 23, 2020

Courses that were approved by ACU Abilene departments, colleges, and councils are identified for inclusion in ACU Dallas programs. ACU Dallas adopts these previously approved courses, along with their course descriptions and student learning outcomes, as new courses and cross-lists them with the original course.

The courses listed below have been identified for use in ACU Dallas programs and for approval for adoption and cross-listing.

PSYC 401

- Course Title: Career and Calling
- Credit Hours: 1
- Course Description: Detailed study of graduate school admissions and job search strategies including school selection, personal skills assessment, resume writing, and interviewing. To be taken in the junior year.
- Course Outcomes
 - To provide an introduction to the specific career opportunities, challenges, and graduate school options for psychology majors.
- New cross-listed subject code and course number: PSYO 401

PSYC 485

- Course Title: Introduction to Counseling
- Credit Hours: 4
- Course Description: Introduction to theory and practice of counseling. Emphasis is on the development of essential attending, interviewing, and influencing skills. The course requires a lab. Laboratory graded and credited with course. Prerequisite: PSYO 382. A capstone course.
- Course Outcomes

- To provide the student with information about the therapeutic process and the practical elements of the counseling interaction
- To provide the student with an experiential laboratory to learn and practice listening and attending skills essential to the counseling process
- To expose the student to a variety of ethical and professional issues in counseling and to guide the student in developing a position on these issues
- To develop an interest in reading in the counseling field
- To develop self-evaluation skills, writing skills, and critical thinking skills
- To encourage the student to integrate the theoretical and experiential learning in order to form a personal model of the counseling process
- To challenge the student to look at his or her own qualities that support and/or hinder their attempts at being therapeutic for others
- (Lab outcome) To provide undergraduate students an opportunity to integrate course material and personal style into practical counseling skills through an experimental lab
- (Lab outcome) To challenge students to understand and apply the stages and processes of change
- (Lab outcome) To facilitate the development of basic listening skills, interviewing techniques, and communication skills to enhance being an effective counselor
- New cross-listed subject code and course number: PSYO 485
