Course Number: LEAD 784 or Degree Plan(s): EdD Organizational Leadership and Cross-Listed with EdD Educational Leadership

Course name change:

OLD: Qualitative & Action Research

NEW: Qualitative Method Research and Designs

Course Description change:

OLD:

Engages students in the study of qualitative and action research methods. Students will understand the theoretical and philosophical foundations of qualitative research and be introduced to qualitative methodology. Students will study the process of action research focusing on improvement in the leader's practices, his/her understanding of those practices, and the organizational contexts in which those practices are carried out.

NEW:

This course introduces students to characteristics of the qualitative method and research designs along with frameworks such as descriptive, case studies, narrative, phenomenology, among others. Students will apply knowledge using various techniques to design and align qualitative research and learn to choose between qualitative designs to support a qualitative dissertation.

No existing Course Level Outcomes

ADD Course Level Outcomes:

1. Evaluate the underpinnings and applications of the qualitative method in diverse research contexts.
2. Analyze various qualitative designs and applications of each design in consideration of their proposed problem statement or topic.
3. Explore qualitative data collection techniques and analysis methods to interpret qualitative data and generate meaningful insights.

Notes

¹ Any change to a cross-listed course requires the signature of both department chairs or program directors overseeing the course to ensure that the courses stay in sync. This includes courses taught at other campuses (e.g. BIBL 101 and BIBO 101).

² For undergraduate majors, a minimum of 30 hours is required. These programs must have a minimum of 6 elective hours, unless the requirements of external accrediting bodies make it impossible. Master's programs must include a minimum of 30 hours, and doctoral programs must include a minimum of 30 hours beyond the master's.

³ When a program director or dean proposes closing a program, approval routing follows the typical process beginning with the program. An administrative proposal by the provost or senior vice president for academic affairs would follow the "provost-proposed" routing on the chart.
