

ACU McDaniel House Sustainable Landscape Workshop Saturday, February 25, 2017

McDaniel House, 1618 Campus Court, Abilene
(On the South West Corner of ACU Campus)

9:00 am – 12 noon
Free – Everyone Welcome

Topics:

Rain Barrels and Rainwater Harvesting
Permeable Walkway
Keyhole Vegetable Garden
Drip Irrigation Using Gravity Pressure
Composting
Handicap Accessible Vegetable Bed
Wildlife Watering Device
Worm Composting

Rain Gardens
Wicking Vegetable Beds
Xeric Plantings
Raised Bed Vegetable Plantings
Mulching
Green Roof
Tippy-Tap Hand Washer
Hydroponics
“Turfless” Roof Reliant Landscaping

Program Sponsored by the Department of Agricultural and Environmental Sciences, Abilene Christian University and Taylor County AgriLife Extension Service Master Gardener Program

For information: ACU A&ES Office (325) 674-2401-- Billy Kniffen 325-456-5772--email: bak15a.acu.edu

Agenda

9:00 – Welcome – Dr. Ed Brokaw, ACU Ag and Environmental Science Department Chair

9:15- 10:00 - What is Sustainable Landscaping -, Billy Kniffen, ACU Advisor

10:00 – 10_20 – Break

10:20 – 11:30 Landscape tour and discussion – Billy Kniffen,

Dr. Jim Carpenter – permeable paving and green roofs

Mr. Alex Wann, tippy tap hand washing and disinfection

Students where possible discuss particular projects (example – Madelon on composting worms)

11:30 – noon – questions and adjourn