Course evaluations are a good tool you can use to adapt your course and teaching styles and methods to be as effective as possible in future classes. They're also an important element of your annual evaluations and tenure and promotion processes. We encourage you to save each report each semester for your reference.

Uploading the reports in your Scheduled Teaching listings in Activity Insight can be a good place to keep track of them.

If you have technical problems accessing a report, please contact Educational Technology at courseeval@acu.edu. What did the instructor do that made the course effective? Be specific (for example: particular assignments, discussions, presentations, etc.).

Comments
Very knowledgeable of course content and helpful with the rigorous translations.
I really enjoyed the recorded passage reviews that we could watch after finishing a translation. It was always helpful to hear you teach through the translation.
The comments on every week's translation assignments helped to see exactly where we needed to spend a little more time learning a particular concept.

What could the instructor do to improve the effectiveness of this course? Be specific.

Comments
Continue to be her authentic self
I don't have any feedback here. I thought it was an effective course.
It may require a particular class makeup, but it might be interesting to have students grade/examine each other's translations a couple of time throughout the semester. This will allow them to see how other people are thinking through their work, and require us to make sure to be able to explain to their classmates why specific decisions are incorrect. Teaching is just such a great way to ensure mastery of a subject.

Do you have additional comments about your experience in this course?

Comments
I appreciated how well the class was executed in an online format. The vocab quizzes and having us translate from different portions of the New Testament allowed us to be exposed to different styles of Greek writing, as well as different sets of vocabulary.

Comments
She was engaged in the weekly discussions, she had a weekly video and offered a meeting weekly to discuss content.
The weekly Zoom sessions, and the recorded passage translations lectures were highly effective.

What was the value of this course for you?

Comments
Tremendous
Immense. I'm glad to have the tools and a basic knowledge of biblical greek moving forward in my ministry career.
It was helpful to practice translating so many different passages of scripture. It also help expose us to resources that will be helpful for future forays into Greek and Scriptural studies.
