Tenure and Promotion Committee:

It is my great pleasure to write on behalf of Dr. Kilnam Cha, who teaches Bible at Abilene Christian University. Since 2002 I have been teaching music at the Music Department, Korea Christian University. In 2014 I was blessed to be a visiting research scholar in the Department of Music at ACU. Dr. Cha was instrumental for my sabbatical stay at ACU. Even before I applied for a position of visiting research scholar he introduced me to the professors and staff at ACU, and once my family and I arrived at the Abilene airport he helped us to settle down and get used to the new surroundings in Abilene.

During my sabbatical year in 2014, I experienced true Christian fellowship at ACU campus and the church, and witnessed the true role of Christian higher education by observing how the ACU community relates to its constituents and to the Abilene community at large. I have shared my wonderful experience in Abilene with my colleagues at KCU, and I am confident that this exchange of professors enhances the academic cooperation between ACU and KCU, especially after Drs. Mark and Sam-Jung Hamilton's sabbatical stay at KCU last Spring semester.

I have been very impressed with Dr. Cha's work as a dedicated Bible professor at ACU, a missionary in the East Asian countries as well as in the local church, and as a good neighbor for people who have practical needs. I think he is one who tries to integrate true Christian faith and love in his life.

Thank you very much for reading my letter and your consideration for his tenure and promotion.

Sincerely,
Hyun-Joo Lee, DMA
